

Camp

SUMMER 2013

Read-a-Rama Clemson

Limit
35 campers
per week

Looking for a fun and exhilarating program for children this summer?

Read-a-Rama is a day camp for children ages 4 to 11 that uses children's books as a springboard for hands-on and outdoor education. Each themed, book-centered week includes fun camp activities like swimming, crafts, music, games and more, and every week contributes to making Camp Read-a-Rama campers life-long readers!

July 8-July 12

Get a Clue (Mystery)

Get ready to dive into the unknown and solve mysteries and riddles. We will read Tuesday by David Weisner, take field trips to Clemson's campus to go on a scavenger hunt and learn how to geocache, play the board game "Clue," and make our own spy kit.

July 15-19

Crazy Scientists, Crazier Experiments

Are you always trying to invent new things? With the help of Paul Fleishman's Weslandia and Vicki Cobb's Science Experiments You Can Eat, we'll delve into the world of science by conducting cool experiments, making sun-dials, and much more. We will take a field trip to Clemson's campus to see what's cookin' in their science labs, and will visit Greenville's Roper Mountain Science Center.

LOCATION: Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, 193 Old Greenville Highway, Clemson, SC

DAILY CAMP SCHEDULE:

7:30-8:30	Optional Before-care	11:45-1:00	DEAR (Drop Everything and Read!)
8:30-9:00	Drop off	1:00-2:30	Swimming & or afternoon activity
9:00-9:30	Harambe Time (Coming Together)	2:30-3:00	Closing
9:30-11:00	Snack & Small group hands-on activities	3:00-3:15	Pick up
11:00-11:45	Lunch (bring bag lunch)	3:00-5:00	Optional After-care

Camp fees and registration: $180/week

Before-Care: $15; After-Care: $15 or $30 for both - Campers need to bring lunch every day.

This includes registration, all activities and camper insurance. A camp nurse will be on staff each week.

For questions, contact Dr. Michelle H. Martin at 803-777-1215 or martinmi@sc.edu

For information and registration materials, go to: www.Read-a-Rama.org